THE CRIPPLE

Who is crippled by accident or deformity hardly understands the meaning of the word "crippled" as compared with the victim of rheumatism. He is not only bent and twisted, but also racked with pain so cruel that he envies the cripple who stumps along a wooden leg, whistling as he goes.

Rheumatism is known to-day as a blood disease. It can only be cured through the blood.

That powerful blood-purifying medicine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cleanses the blood of the acid poisons which cause rheumatism. When the blood is cleansed the rheumatism is cured.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Mr. R. J. McKnight, of Cades, Williamsburg County, S. C., writes: "I had been troubled with rheumatism for twelve years. I could not leave my bed. I was badly crippled. Tried many doctors, and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me any good. The pain in my back, hips and legs (and at times in my head), would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of 'Pelle's,' and today my health is good after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

The sluggish liver can be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

RIOTOUS MINERS

Further Scenes of Bloodshed Mark the Big Miners Strike.

A POLICEMAN KILLED.

Efforts of Union Men to Close Down a Mine Is Resisted With Tragical Results.

Riot Started By Women Who Stoned the Superintendent of the Mine.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the United States government to the latest note from France offering suggestions as to the settlement of the troubles in China, was completed last night and delivered to Thibault, charge d'affaires of the French embassy.

No official statement of the contents of the answer was obtainable. Following its inflexible rule, the state department declined to make public the text of the communication or to make any statement of the nature of its contents until opportunity had been afforded for its reception by the French foreign office. It is believed here to take a favorable view of the suggestions submitted by the French government in a general way although it does not commit this government to all of them.

Minister Conger has submitted to this government a list of Chinese whom he regards as the responsible authors of the outrages which have occurred and has made recommendations as to the extent and manner of their punishment.

Because of the danger of the men selected by Mr. Conger for punishment banding together and using their influence to prevent their death or degradation, this government will not communicate them at the proper time to the German government. In addition to Prince Tuan, Duke Esai Lan and Ying Nien, Yang Yi and Chao Su Chiao, it is understood that Mr. Conger has named General Tung Fu Hsiang and other generals of the Chinese forces. The government will probably urge that Tuan be beheaded.

SALISBURY ACCEPTS.

Great Britain Falls Into Line With Germany.

Berlin, Oct. 11.—Great Britain's answer to Germany's second note has been received. It is an unreserved and unconditional acceptance of the German position. A high official of the foreign office made the following statement on the subject: "Great Britain is following the example of the United States. At the same time she has directed her representative in Pekin to proceed in accordance with Germany's second note. Her answer makes no mention of the German note of September, but there was no necessity for any reference, because the September note merely laid down certain general principles while the second note developed them into practical suggestions."

So far as the French note is concerned the impression gained in official circles is that it will be shelved indefinitely, since it is not regarded here as touching live questions. Official opinion seems to be that it will not disturb the harmony of the powers, since it will soon be forgotten.

The policy of the United States in China is again criticized by the German press. "The Americans," says the Lokal Anzeiger, "desire above all things, to play a leading role, but if they were to retire altogether, from China, they would do more good than harm."

Americans Glad to Get Out. London, Oct. 11.—The Morning Post publishes the following despatch dated October 2: from Ho Si Wu, on the Pei Ho Koo: "General Chaffee refused to convey any baggage, although three baggage wagons had been obtained. The American soldiers are glad to go to Manila. The accommodating and polite attitude of the British and Japanese toward General Chaffee is very noticeable. An American to-day expressed to me a new view of the American withdrawal. 'I favor the withdrawal of our troops,' he said. 'They fought well to reach Pekin, but since that time they have done as little as possible, even for Americans. Their presence, being aggressive, only hampers other countries. A thousand men under General Wilson can do more than five thousand under General Chaffee.'"

"Triads" Are Gaining. Shanghai, Oct. 11.—The Triads have met and repeatedly defeated the imperial troops near Kowloon. They are daily gaining fresh adherents. Heavy Russian reinforcements are moving northward from Port Arthur, with the object of relieving pressure upon Mukden. Every place of importance in Manchuria, from Kiakta to the Pri-morsk boundary and from the Amur to the great wall, is now in Russian hands.

Another Up Rising Planned. Hong Kong, Oct. 11.—It is said that the authorities here have received information that a general rising in the southern provinces has been planned for the month of November. Ten thousand more troops from India have been requisitioned for Hong Kong.

A SEAT IN THE PEWS. Gen. Harrison Is Positively Out of Campaigning Work.

New York, Oct. 11.—General Benjamin Harrison gave out an interview and statement last night. He was asked: "Is it true, general, that you have consented to make some speeches in the campaign?"

"No," that statement has not been authorized by me," was his answer. "I have said to every one who has spoken or written to me on the subject, that I could not do any more campaign work. I began to make Republican speeches the year I began to vote and have had a laborious, if unimportant part in every campaign, state and national, until 1898. In 1898, I submitted myself to very hard usage and then made up my mind, and said to my friends, that I would do no more campaigning. Following this conclusion, I declined to take a speaking part in the campaign of 1898. My retirement dates from that year, not from this. Few men have made more speeches for their party than I have, and no ex-president, I am sure, has made more. Since I left Washington, my retirement from all participation in party management has been complete. All that I have left to others, and I think they have very generally and kindly accepted my sense of the proprieties of the case—at least between campaigns. In a word, I have vacated the chair left, and taken a seat in the pews—with a deep sense of gratitude to my foregoing fellow countrymen."

General Harrison will leave New York for his home to-morrow.

Daring Design Frustrated. Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 11.—A sensational plot for the release of the notorious forger, J. S. Boyd, from the Western penitentiary was apparently nipped in the bud yesterday. During the day Warden Wright says what was supposed to be a male visitor was granted a talk with Boyd. The talk lasted about ten minutes, and just as the visitor was about to depart, Boyd tried to pass him a note. Keeper Sullivan grabbed the paper and reported the occurrence. The warden investigated and was surprised to find that the visitor was a woman in disguise. The contents of the note the warden refused to divulge, but admits that the information it contained, revealed one of the most daring and ingenious plans for escape he has ever heard of.

Strength of Missions. St. Louis, Oct. 11.—A general summary of the work of the American Board of Missions for 1899 and 1900, shows twenty missions under its supervision throughout the foreign field with 102 stations, 1,238 sub-stations and 1,641 places for stated preaching. In these missions are 4,011 laborers, of whom 3,472 are natives, the remainder being Americans, a total of 465 churches with 51,690 members, hold services under the American Board auspices in foreign fields.

Another Victim Claimed. Chicago, Oct. 11.—Laura Carroll is named as another victim of the insurance conspiracy syndicate, said to be headed by Dr. August M. Unger. The physician used her, it is said, as a subject on whom to take out policies in a game similar to that which was attempted with Marie Deffenbach. The Carroll woman disappeared four or five months ago and none of those with whom she associated have seen her since.

Mountaineers Attempt Escape. Louisville, Ky., Oct. 11.—Ten mountaineers headed by James Howard, an ex-postmaster, who is under a three years' sentence received in the United States court, attempted to break jail last night by digging through a wall. A turnkey surprised Howard cutting into the wall and after a struggle, knocked a big knife from his hands. Howard imprisoned nine other prisoners in the plot to escape.

DISCREET ANSWER

America Makes Reply To the French Note Regarding Chinese Trouble.

THE CONTENTS SECRET

Information Concerning the Same Is Withheld, But It Is Believed to Be Favorable.

Minister Conger Submits a List of Chinese Officials Who Deserve Punishment.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 11.—A special policeman was instantly killed, another was wounded in the head, a striker was probably fatally shot and ten non-union men were more or less seriously wounded at the Ononda Colliery of Cox Bros., in a clash between the officers and five hundred strikers yesterday. Ten non-union men were stoned, but only two of them were seriously injured.

The Ononda Colliery having been in operation since the inauguration of the strike, the union men at Ononda and Shepton, where many of the employees of the Ononda and Derringer collieries of Cox Bros. & Co. live, joined yesterday to close down the mine. They gathered in groups on the streets and as the non-union men went to work, they were asked by the strikers to remain at home. Some turned back, others did not. Those who went to the colliery, were stoned.

As the small mine locomotive used in hauling coal from the No. 2 and No. 3 collieries to the Ononda breaker pulled up on the road near the latter colliery, a crowd of women blocked the track. The women were told by General Superintendent Kudlick to go home. He assured them that their husbands would get an increase of wages and that their other grievances would be properly adjusted. The women refused to listen and stoned the superintendent, who was wounded in the head. Then the striking men and the women rushed toward the No. 2 colliery. A force of about fifty special policemen, who had been brought down from Beaver Meadow, to prevent trouble, attempted to intercept the mob, but they were powerless to do anything and retired to their engine house.

Just as the officers got close to shelter a shot was fired. This was followed by another and in a few seconds, many shots rang through the air. No one knows who shot first, but it is believed that both the strikers and the officers used their weapons. After the shooting the strikers dispersed. Sheriff Toole of Seneykill county, in whose territory the clash occurred, was in Philadelphia.

LOYALTY TO MITCHELL. Striking Miners Demonstrate Their Fealty to the Cause.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 11.—Thousands of striking mine workers marched in review through the crowded streets of this city yesterday afternoon and showed their loyalty to the cause for which they have been battling for the past three weeks. Not only did the strikers manifest loyalty to their principals but they showed the confidence they had in their leader, John Mitchell, who came here to participate in the parade and to address the men in mass-meeting. The national president's welcome was an exceedingly flattering one. It was the greatest laudation that has ever taken place in the Lackawanna valley. Thousands of miners and their families came to the city from all towns within a radius of twenty miles.

It was estimated that more than ten thousand persons were gathered around the speakers' stand, when Fred Ditcher, of Ohio, member of the executive board, introduced the national president of the Mipe Workers union. When Mr. Mitchell, in his speech told the miners that the proposition of the operators to advance wages ten per cent. was not enough, the spontaneity of the cheering was surprising and almost startling. He followed this up by declaring that the mine officers ought to abolish the company stores and the sliding scale and that they should pay the men their wages semi-monthly as the Pennsylvania law directs. With the mention of each grievance there would come an outburst of applause from the men.

Some of the Miners' Demands. Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 11.—Secretary George Hartlein, of District No. 9, comprising the counties of Schuylkill, Northumberland, Columbia and Dauphin, states that the 50,000 mine workers of the district would be represented at the Scranton conference by 200 to 250 delegates in good standing of the price of powder, observance of the semi-monthly pay law, abolishment of sliding scale and acceptance of the 10 per cent. increase in case the operators guarantee to maintain the increase for one year, the delegates will cast their ballots to compel operators and representatives of coal carrying companies to recognize the union.

Sister of Charity Killed. Helena, Minn., Oct. 11.—Sister Baptista, a sister of charity, was accidentally shot and killed last night at St. Aloysius school by Johnny Nicholson, an eleven-year-old pupil.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 11.—The police are looking for Wesley Williams, the young white man, who shot and killed Ewing Washington, a colored boy. It is thought the murderer made his escape into Kentucky, where he has relatives living, near Baskett's station. Williams came to the city to see his sweetheart, and while at the corner of Fulton avenue and Nevada street, watering his horse, Washington came up and began to torment him about being a "country Jake." Williams pulled his pistol and shot Washington in the head. The negro lad died the next day.

Among the directors are United States Senator John F. Kenna. Schreiber, who had been in the employ of the banking company since its incorporation about ten years ago, started from Elizabethport on August 2, and was supposed to be on his vacation. While he was away his accounts were examined, and the shortage was discovered.

A BUSY DAY'S WORK

Governor Roosevelt Met By Enormous Crowds In Indiana.

ANOTHER BASE ATTACK

Hoodlums At Fort Wayne Attempt a Repetition of the Recent Scene at Victor, Col.

A Shower of Stones Thrown At The Distinguished Visitor's Carriage On the Street.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Governor Roosevelt closed a busy day's work by making three speeches in this city last night, addressing the greatest number of persons in the aggregate, who have ever gathered in Ft. Wayne to listen to a candidate for political honors. He was honored also with three large parades. The last stop prior to the arrival here was at Huntington, where a large illuminated parade was given. Reaching Ft. Wayne, the governor was driven immediately to the rink, where he was greeted with prolonged applause. Having delivered his address, he was escorted to a large tent especially erected for the occasion, where he made a second speech and thence he went to Library Hall, where he spoke for the third time.

Other speakers at the three meetings were Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, Charles Jewett of the Indiana Republican state committee, and W. E. English, who during the Spanish war, was a member of General Wheeler's staff. When the Roosevelt party reached the rink, the structure was crowded and hundreds of persons were unable to obtain admission. When the governor was introduced, the audience rose as one man and gave him three cheers and a tiger.

Hoodlums endeavored to rival those who made an attack upon Governor Roosevelt at Victor, Colorado, and in a measure succeeded. On Calhoun street, shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink where Governor Roosevelt was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk, threw a shower of rocks at Col. Roosevelt's carriage. One struck Gov. Roosevelt on the shoulder, and another aimed at the governor, missed him and struck Col. Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, in the face.

VITAL STATISTICS. Report For Indiana Shows 34,000 Deaths During the Year.

Indianapolis, Oct. 11.—The board of vital statistics of the state board of health, has completed the tabulation of its statistics for the month of September, which closes the first year of the board created by the last legislature. In general, the law regulating the collection of vital statistics has worked successfully. There have, however, been a few exceptions, where physicians and undertakers failed to report deaths.

The number of deaths in the state, as shown from the reports for the twelve months, is, in round numbers, 34,000. Consumption and typhoid fever caused many of the deaths.

Indiana Municipal League. Richmond, Ind., Oct. 11.—A large number of delegates to the meeting of the Indiana Municipal league are in attendance. Mayor Zimmerman welcomed the delegates.

Until recently his health and strength were remarkable for one so advanced in years. He came to this county in 1830, from Pennsylvania. He resides with his oldest daughter, in Swan township.

Boiler Lets Go. Union City, Ind., Oct. 11.—In a boiler explosion near Jericho, south of here, John Brown, of this city, sixty years old, had his arm broken in two places and was also badly scalded about the face. He will probably recover. The engine was blown fully fifty years away.

Fall Broke His Neck. Hagerstown, Ind., Oct. 11.—Amos Kaufman, a well-known farmer, prominent in local Democratic politics, and seventy years old, fell from his wagon breaking his neck. His death was instantaneous.

THE DUTY OF MOTHERS.

What suffering frequently results from a mother's ignorance; or more frequently from a mother's neglect to properly instruct her daughter!

Tradition says "woman must suffer," and young women are so taught. There is a little truth and a great deal of exaggeration in this. If a young woman suffers severely she needs treatment, and her mother should see that she gets it.

Many mothers hesitate to take their daughters to a physician for examination; but no mother need hesitate to write freely about her daughter or herself to Mrs. Pinkham and secure the most efficient advice without charge. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. August Pfalzgraf, of South Byron, Wis., mother of the young lady whose portrait we here publish, wrote Mrs. Pinkham in January, 1899, saying her daughter had suffered for two years with irregular menstruation—had headache all the time, and pain in her side, feet swell, and was generally miserable. Mrs. Pinkham promptly replied with advice, and under date of March, 1899, the mother writes again that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her daughter of all pains and irregularity.

Nothing in the world equals Mrs. Pinkham's great medicine for regulating woman's peculiar monthly troubles.

Carried Death With It. Geneva, Ind., Oct. 11.—Rodney Dennis, an oil driller, was killed near here by an oil derrick falling on him.

Justifiable Homicide. Holbrook, Neb., Oct. 11.—Carl Bart-enback, living one mile south of here, tried to kill his wife and family. They ran to the home of Mr. Klebeck, who is Bart-enback's brother-in-law. Bart-enback followed them and fired several shots at Klebeck and his family. Klebeck returned the fire and killed Bart-enback. The coroner's jury found a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Opened Without Bloodshed. Spokane, Wash., Oct. 11.—The north half of the Colville reservation was opened to white settlement yesterday. Hundreds of men were on the ground long before the hour. John Falls filed the first entry. No bloodshed is reported and comparatively few contests are expected.

Liberals Gain In Counties. London, Oct. 11.—The Liberals have been doing far better in the counties in the parliamentary general election than they did in the boroughs. Yesterday they gained two more seats, Cardiff and the Otley division of Yorkshire, thus equalizing the party gains.

SHOOTING IN SCOTLAND. An Immense Sum Expended Annually In This Form of Sport.

As to the sums spent on shooting in Scotland, so large is the total that it is a difficult matter to arrive even at an approximate estimate. In Perthshire alone there are 465 shootings, of which about four-fifths are let to tenants and bring in about £150,000 a year, or an average of £400 a year, which seems about a fair estimate if it be borne in mind that this is an expensive country and that 50 of its best shootings bring £35,000, or an average of £700 a year. In the whole of Scotland there are about 4,000 shootings, and as each of them must at least employ one keeper and one gillie during the shooting season some estimate may be formed of the money expended in wages and the number of people employed.

In the deer forests and on the larger shootings there will often be from four to six men permanently engaged and from six to eight others working for the shooting season only. In a well known forest where I once spent many pleasant days there were three foresters, three gillies and three pony men out each day. On the grouse ground there were three keepers, with three underkeepers, a kennel man and two carriers going to and from the nearest railway station, a total of 18 men and five horses, not to mention the ponies kept for riding into the forest and those kept to carry grouse panniers. On this property three rifles could stalk each day, while three other parties of two each could shoot grouse, or the six could combine for driving—Chambers' Journal.

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

1896:—OPEN THE MILLS.

1900:—KEEP THEM OPEN.

WHAT is Bryan imperialism? The answer is easy. It is Coxe's armies.

It is being admitted on all hands that Bryan is the worst demagogue that ever run for president. Democrats are quietly saying to confidential friends that his demagogic methods stand in the way of their party success.

Keep this fact in mind that a vote for Bryan is a vote for a man who is in sympathy with Aguinaldo and the men who are firing on the stars and stripes. A vote for McKinley is a vote for the man who is in sympathy with the boys who are defending the stars and stripes. With whom do you sympathize?

WITH the American flag in Manila the United States will control seventy-five per cent. of the trade of China for a hundred years to come. If we abandon the Philippines now we shall lose our opportunity in the far east. Bryan admits the advantage in trade it would give us but he says that would be putting the dollar above the man. He means we would oppress the Filipinos. But the American flag will never oppress anyone. The flag will be there to bless and not to oppress.

Gen. Harrison Speaks.

In an interview yesterday Benjamin Harrison spoke of the issues of the campaign in no doubtful tones. To the reporter he said:

"The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie Hall speech, in 1896, why Mr. Bryan should not be elected, still hold good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental business affairs into confusion. We should not aid the election of a President who would, admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value even more, upon the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound and that the republican party will, after defeat, still have strength enough to save the temple. It will be much better not to allow the man with destructive tendencies so much as to lean against its pillars.

"Perhaps it will save you much trouble if I give you, and underwrite as of this date, this extract from my Carnegie Hall speech: 'When we have a president who believes that it is neither his right nor his duty to see that the mail trains are not obstructed and that interstate commerce has its free way, irrespective of state lines, and courts that fear to use their ancient and familiar writs to restrain and punish law-breakers, free trade and free silver will be appropriate accompaniments of such an administration and can not add appreciably to the National distress or the National dishonor.'

"The economic policies of the republican party have been vindicated by the remarkable and general prosperity that has developed during Mr. McKinley's administration—succeeded a period of great depression. A change of administration this fall would almost certainly renew conditions from which we have so happily escaped. The full dinner bucket is not a sordid emblem. It has a spiritual significance for the spiritually minded. It means more comfort for the wife and family, more schooling and less work for the children and a margin of saving for sickness and old age."

Republican Meeting

There will be a special meeting of the Powell Marching Club this evening at 7:30 at the city building. Let every member be present.

FUTURE OF THE PHILIPPINES

"I have no light or knowledge not common to my countrymen. I do not prophesy. The present is all-absorbing to me. But I cannot bound my vision by the blood-stained trenches around Manila—where every red drop, whether from the veins of an American soldier or a misguided Filipino, is anguish to my heart—but by the broad range of future years, when that group of islands, under the impulse of the year just past, shall have become the gems and glories of those tropical seas—a land of plenty and of increasing possibilities; a people redeemed from savage indolence and habits, devoted to the arts of peace, in touch with the commerce and trade of all nations, enjoying the blessings of freedom, of civil and religious liberty, of education and of homes, and whose children and children's children shall for ages hence bless the American republic because it emancipated and redeemed their fatherland, and set them in the pathway of the world's best civilization."

ASTOUNDING TALKS

Bryan's Studied Effort to Array Class Against Class.

USES OF STANDING ARMY

Demagogic Insinuations by the Candidate From Nebraska.

Only an Attempt to Embitter the Workingmen, in Which He Failed Four Years Ago and Must Fail Again—But Twice in Twenty Years Has the Army Been Used to Suppress Labor Disturbances, and Then by Democratic Officers—Comparison of Armies.

Mr. Bryan has said many absurd things in his campaigning, but nothing more astounding than an assertion that MAY BE THE DESIRE FOR A LARGER ARMY HAD THIS STRIKE IN VIEW, referring to the anthracite strike. The impression he sought to make was that the government wanted a large army in order that the guns might be turned upon American workmen. Only the other day in another speech Mr. Bryan said:

"What domestic use is there for a large army? They want to build a fort near every large city and have the army there to suppress by force the discontent that ought to be cured by legislation. Under the pretext that we want a large army for foreign use there are Republicans who want it for domestic use."

This was said in discussing the labor question, and it is a typical example of Bryan's constant attempts to stir up class hatred by false insinuations. He knows that nobody wants a large army for foreign or any other kind of use. He also knows that on only two occasions in over 20 years has the army been used to suppress labor disturbances, and then it was done by a Democratic president or at the request of a Democratic governor. His purpose is solely to create enmity among workmen against the administration to make them envious of other people, dissatisfied with their lot, and anxious for a revolution of some kind. He is constantly uttering sentiments of exactly the same kind.

Class Against Class.

Mr. Bryan is basing his hopes of the presidency chiefly upon his efforts to split up the people into classes and then array class against class. Bryan's attempt to embitter the workingmen was a failure four years ago, when he tried to do it on the silver issue. Since that question is played out as a means of getting votes, he is now seeking to do the same thing by a hypocritical cry of "militarism." He is telling 18,000,000 male wage-earners in the United States that their liberties are in danger from a great standing army. Where this army is to come from he does not say. President McKinley has never asked for a large army and would be the first to oppose such an idea. Mr. Bryan believes he can arouse hatred for law and order by talking about "militarism." Every speech that he makes is an attempt to create envy on the part of those who have less against those who have more. He has shown himself to be one of the demagogues who would disrupt the union from the inside by arraying class against class, if by so doing he can elevate himself to the position he is seeking. The forces he is thus evoking would be by far the most dangerous with which he would have to deal if he ever became president. It is useless to rebuke his obscure imitators while saying little or nothing about the arch-agitator himself.

Military Comparisons.

In Europe, on a territory less than two-thirds as large as the United States of America, in times of profound peace, there is a standing army of 2,289,000 men, which in times of war may within a few weeks be increased to 14,000,000 armed men—men all trained for military service and who have been drilled and are annually mustered in for active military duty.

In the United States, on a territory much larger than the four great monarchies of Europe, and with a population as great as France and Austria and Hungary combined, a standing army of 65,000 men, which in times of war may be increased to 100,000 men. If this comparison is not sufficient to point the folly of the assertion that the United States government, under the present administration, been led into the paths of militarism and made the rival of the great military powers of Europe, look at Bavaria, a state in the German empire with an area only four-fifths as large as Indiana, which has 65,000 soldiers in time of peace, and in time of war 300,000. Only those ignorant of facts or interested in falsifying them can under any pretense assert that the United States is a military country.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

BRYAN AN EXTREMIST

Judge McHugh, a Former Supporter, Opposes His Election.

Judge W. D. McHugh of Omaha, for some years a leader of the Democratic forces in Nebraska, and a former federal judge under Cleveland, is strongly opposed to Bryan in this campaign. In 1892 Judge McHugh was among the most active workers for Mr. Bryan in his congressional campaign.

"On the tariff issue I supported Bryan for Congress in 1892," he says, "but when later on he appeared as the champion of free silver, free riot and free everything else that he thought would make votes, I could not continue in his political company. I think I have a pretty clear insight of the man's character now. His actions during the last six or seven years has shown him to be a man who does not and will not hesitate to deceive the people when he believes such deception will advance his own political interests. The people rejected him and his money theory, and have since become prosperous. The free silver issue is a bad one for the Bryanites to handle this year, after the country has recovered from the hard times without having adopted the course which in 1892 they declared would be the one and only way to bring prosperity, so now Mr. Bryan resorts to another clever trick in politics. He again offers himself as the savior of the nation. This year he tells them that unless they adopt his policy as regards the Philippine Islands freedom and liberty will be endangered and the very existence of the republic threatened. Bryan as president would be a menace to peace as well as to commerce. The president has everything to do with our foreign relations, and a president of Bryan's impetuosity, radicalism and inordinate ambition would have us involved in international difficulties upon the slightest pretext. Bryan is an extremist of the worst kind."

CHEAP SPONGES.

Where Those Sold by the Street Fakirs Are Procured.

Sponges sold by the street fakir are rather captivating in appearance, large and almost white, and the price ranges from 5 to 10 cents each. People who have bought sponges at a drug store know that no such looking articles can be got there for so little money, and so they invest. But they don't invest more than once, because the sponge soon falls to pieces, whereas a good sponge will last for years.

Somebody started a story years ago that the reason the fakirs could sell these sponges so cheaply was because they bought them from the hospitals, and there are some people who still believe it. As if men devoting all their energies and skill to ameliorating the ills of mankind would spread disease by distributing old and possibly germ infected sponges. As a matter of fact surgeons' sponges are small and smooth as velvet, being close grained.

Prosperity Snap Shot.

Figures from the books of the savings banks of the country have come into the office of the controller of the currency at Washington. They have been tabulated with the corresponding figures for last year, that of 1898-1899, and in such proximity they show at a glance the growth in deposits and in the number of depositors. Statisticians hold that the statistics of the savings banks, when studied by a method of comparisons, afford a pretty accurate gauge whereby to judge of the prosperity of a country. Here are the figures for a group of states comprising Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota: This year's total deposits, $222,423,628 Last year's total deposits, 153,690,337

This year's gain, $68,733,291 This year's depositors, 603,056 Last year's depositors, 455,506

This year's gain, 207,543 Similar comparisons for the United States entire show an increase in deposits of $200,104,336 and a gain in depositors of 514,061.

Gold Democrats and Bryan.

The most interesting part of Mr. Bryan's speech at Tomlinson Hall, the night of his notification, was his speculation about his chances of election. He is entirely certain that Gold Democrats—by the way he does not call them bolters or assistant Republicans this year—are back in the old organization, and he says that "now it requires an expert mathematician to stand at the door and count them as they come back." This ought to be easy for a man who insists that he can make 16 ounces of silver to one ounce of gold. But we have not observed any wild rush of the Gold Democrats to the Bryan standard. No words of encouragement to the Bryan cause have come from Cleveland, Carlisle, Gray, Vilas, Palmer, Buckner, Brazz, Irish, Lindsay or Caffery. The only important Democratic paper as far as we know, that has returned to Bryan is the Louisville Courier-Journal. At the recent meeting of the Gold Democratic national committee, held in this city, there was a practically unanimous agreement that the first thing to do was to bring about the defeat of Bryan. The Gold Democrats of this city and state have taken the same position. In short, everything indicates that these men are still "bolters," and that they will continue to be bolters as long as Bryanism controls the Democratic organization.—Indianapolis News.

Bryan's Prophecy.

Before the last presidential election George Fred Williams predicted that Bryan's electoral vote would be 315, McKinley's 132. The actual figures proved to be McKinley 271, Bryan 176. Mr. Williams now says that Bryan will get 261, McKinley 186. The natural inference is that Bryan will have to be satisfied with about 100.

Exhibit Lifeline Qualities.

Weeds if they are pulled out of a lawn at a time when they are full of seed will evince a degree of care for the seeds which is almost touching. They will curl their leaves upward as far as each can go to cover the seeds and protect them from the sun till the end, and often one will find weeds that are quite dead, sun killed, whose leaves still are wrapped firmly around the seed pods. No mother could show more striking devotion in death than do these despised plants.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

DEATH AT A WEDDING.

A Pathetic Tragedy of the War Between the States.

Recalling the historic incidents clustering about South Carolina's executive mansion, Mrs. Thaddeus Horton writes in The Ladies' Home Journal of the shocking tragedy that occurred there toward the close of the war. This was the death of the daughter of Governor Pickens immediately after her marriage to Lieutenant Le Rochelle. "On the afternoon preceding the evening of the marriage the northern army began shelling Columbia, but preparations for the wedding continued.

"Finally the guests were all assembled and the ceremony was proceeding with the solemn solemnity and had just joined the right hands of the happy pair when suddenly there was an awful crash, and a ball from the enemy's cannon penetrated the mansion and burst in the middle of the marriage chamber, scattering its death dealing missiles in every direction. There were screams and a heart-rending groan, mirrors crashed, the house shook, women fainted and walls rocked to and fro.

"When the first confusion was over, it was discovered that in all the crowd only one person was injured, and that was the bride herself. She lay partly on the floor and partly in her lover's arms, crushed and bleeding, pale, but very beautiful, her bridal gown drenched with warm blood and a great cut in her breast.

"Laying her on a lounge, the frantic bridegroom besought her by every term of tenderness and endearment to allow the ceremony to proceed, to which she weakly gave consent, and, lying like a crushed flower no less white than the camellias of her bridal bouquet, her breath coming in short gasps and the blood flowing from this great, angry wound, she murmured 'yes' to the clergyman and received her husband's first kiss. A moment more and all was over.

"She was laid to rest under the magnolias, and the heartbroken bridegroom, reckless with despair, returned to his regiment."

Sponges sold by the street fakir are rather captivating in appearance, large and almost white, and the price ranges from 5 to 10 cents each. As if men devoting all their energies and skill to ameliorating the ills of mankind would spread disease by distributing old and possibly germ infected sponges. As a matter of fact surgeons' sponges are small and smooth as velvet, being close grained.

The fakirs' sponges are the clippings off the big sponges sold to livermen and others who need large sponges. The parts cut away have little bite and would soon tear loose. The fakirs buy these bits, trim them into shape and then give them a bath in diluted muriatic acid. After lying there for 12 hours they are taken out and washed in clear water and dried. They are bleached, in other words, but at still further detriment to the sponge. Never of close texture, the mesh is made more rotten by the acid, and that is why they soon fall apart. But so far as disease is concerned they are as pure as any sponge bought in the finest drug store.—Chicago Tribune.

The Young Men of Today.

The young men of today are too finicky—too much given to self analysis, too self pampering. Their shoes and neckties cost more each year than did the entire wardrobe of their grandfathers. They feel a sense of degradation in small beginnings and plodding, and they wait for success ready made to come to them. There is not a young man in the country who would imitate Ben Franklin and march through the streets munching a loaf of bread while looking for employment. He dare not, indeed, because society has become also finicky, and he would be arrested as a tramp. The young man of today wants capital. He cannot be president of a bank or judge of a court the first week he is from school, and he feels, like the famous Eli Pussley, that he has "no chance."—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Perhaps there are some business men in this town who have tried advertising and found the results unsatisfactory.

If so, something was the trouble. Contracting for space in a newspaper is not enough. When secured the space must be used to advantage. A convincing story should be told. ## Oldest Man in Indiana.

Dr. Hommel, of near Medora, who is considered the oldest man in the state and who has been written up repeatedly in different papers, visited our city last Thursday. Mr. Hommel is now in his 103rd year and surprising to say a very spry old citizen, getting around as he does fully as well as many of our old citizens who are less than 80 years of age. The doctor lives in a little hut all alone and makes his living at gathering medical roots and herbs, which he sells to the citizens of Carr township. He is a fluent talker and has the dates of numerous historical events well fixed in his mind and on Thursday night in relating some of his experiences, entertained quite a good number of our citizens.—Brownstown Telephone.

Information has been received at the Census Office which shows that forty or fifty persons throughout the United States have been arrested for refusing to reply to questions of census enumerators. When the bill making an appropriation for the census was passed a penalty clause was embodied in it providing for a fine not to exceed $100 in case of anyone refusing to answer questions of enumerators.

MARRIED.

DEGOLYER-ATKISSON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Attkisson, on North Poplar street, was the scene of a beautiful wedding last night. About seventy-five guests were present to witness the ceremony that joined in marriage Mr. Harry E. Degolyer and Miss Perle Attkisson. The house was beautifully and tastefully decorated throughout with golden rods. At eight o'clock Miss Maxa Guernsey took her place at the piano and, accompanied by Mr. G. L. Attkisson with flute, played "Lohengrin" for the entrance of the bridal party. The little flower girls, Beulah Mount and Hazel Pruden, dressed in white and each carrying a basket of golden rods, led the way. Next came the attendants, Arthur Degolyer and Ed. Hopewell, followed by the bride's maid, Miss Ida Costing, and Mr. Harry Thompson, best man, and they were immediately followed by the bride and groom. The bridal party took their places in the second parlor under a beautiful arch of golden rods and just in front of a bank of palms. The marriage ceremony was impressively pronounced by Rev. E. R. Vest, D. D. Following the ceremony and congratulations a dainty wedding lunch was served in two courses. The bride wore a pretty white organdie gown, trimmed in lace and net, draped with ribbon of same and carried a bunch of bride's roses. The bride's maid was attired in white Persian lawn, trimmed in smilax and silk lace, and carried a bunch of roses. The bride and groom received a large number of handsome and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Degolyer left on an early train this morning for East Liverpool, Ohio, their future home. They carry with them the hearty congratulations of a host of warm friends. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Attkisson, Bluffton; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Durham, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Christie and daughter, Cambridge City; Mrs. James Porman, New Albany; and Mr. Carney Williams, of Elwood.

There are smart men in nearly every line of business, and the methods by which have achieved success are worthy of the attention of other men who are seeking the same end. Mr. P. A. Turner, advertising manager of the C. W. J.
